Isn't 8 minutes with your grandchild worth $1.21?

The sound of your voice is always a delightful surprise to someone who loves you. And chances are you can make that happy kind of call for a lot less than you think. For example:

An 8-minute call to Denver.

An 8-minute call to San Antonio.

An 8-minute call to Muskogee, Oklahoma.

They each cost just $1.21 from anywhere in New Jersey, when you dial the call yourself, and call during the lowest bargain calling times.

There's always a right time
for a long talk.

New Jersey Bell

Rates quoted are for direct dialed interstate calls during 60% discount times all day Sat., Sun. 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sun. thru Fri. 11 p.m. to 8 a.m. Not applicable to calls to Alaska or operator assisted calls such as credit card, collect, third number billed, person-to-person and coin phone calls to other states.

Deborah Washing-

"Follow your heart and never give up" is Deborah Washington's advice to aspiring entertainers, and Deborah's positive attitude appears to be paying off for this lovely and multi-talented young lady.

For in addition to her smash disco single Ready or Not, (her very first recording), and work on her upcoming album, Deborah maintains an equally challenging acting career, having appeared in Baretta, Maude, and What's Happening.

Born in Philadelphia on March 16, 1954, Deborah began singing in various city and church choirs. She continued to sing with a succession of groups while attending Pennsylvania State University as a drama major. (Cicely Tyson and Paul Winfield were her inspirations). During this time, her self-confidence convinced her she was ready to make her move to Los Angeles where, judging by recent events, her talent has not gone unnoticed.

Through the recommendations of friends, Deborah was introduced to her producer, George Tobin, who brought her to the attention of Ariola Records for whom she is presently recording her first album. Citing Diana Ross and Barbra Streisand as her favorite singers, Deborah prefers, in her words, "songs with meaning." When her busy schedule permits, Deborah likes to relax by either going out dancing at any one of L.A.'s discos, or practicing karate. Her ideal guy would combine "gentleness, intelligence and understanding."

The growing need for adequate exposure of existing Black-owned enterprises in the New Jersey-New York area, both to Black and White consumers.

Bridging the "exposure gap" between Black-owned enterprises and big business.

Dealing with one of the severe causes of limited business success among many Black-owned enterprises located in New Jersey & New York.

Creating a unique medium to serve the inner and outer communities through an increasing consumer awareness of broad range of products and services by Black-owned businesses.

Opportunities for widening the market ability of goods and services offered by Black-owned businesses, at a level of exposure unavailable anywhere else at comparable costs.

Providing a continuing service annually to the minority business community; increasing awareness of the values of minority contributions in products and services for the economic growth of our cities.

A meaningful step toward the reality of economic development among minorities.

A greater knowledge, locally and nationally, of the important role which Blacks and other minorities play in the life of our communities, our city and the country as a whole.

Your Community wants to know about you. It's good for them, good for you.

BEWARE OF CON ARTISTS

Con Artists, especially around the holiday season, rip off millions of dollars from unsuspecting consumers under the guise of charity. Hope Jackson, Acting Director of The Newark Office of Consumer Action, warns all consumers who are asked to make a contributin to a charity, to use their heads before they open their hearts and their pocket books.

Consumer Action stated that a common practice for phony charities is to use names that sound very much like the name of real charities. In many cases, real names of charity or public service organizations are used. So, a name you know is no guarantee that the appeal is a proper one. Consumers should never send money to an organization on the basis of a telephone solicitation alone. Also, they should never rely on a telephone number given to them by someone at their door asking for funds as a means for them to check the validity of the appeal. It's fraudulent, there's just an accomplice on the other end of the line.

The Consumer Agency recommends:

- ★ Always ask the solicitor for identification.
- ★ Ask the telephone solicitor to mail you information before you make your decision.
- ★ Never pay in cash, write a check. If the solicitor won't take a check, he is a phony.
- ★ Check with the organization to see if they received your contribution.
- ★ Don't let high pressure tactics persuade you to make a contribution.
- ★ Don't be impressed by fancy names.
- ★ If you receive goods in the mail along with a request for a contribution, you are under no obligations to make the donation even if you keep the goods.
- ★ If you are still not positive as to the legitimacy of the charity, check with the Newark Office of Consumer Action, 733-8000.
